

Evening Vanners,

Just a quick update about this Sunday's Upcoming Van show at Sam's beach bar and grill. We may have a space or two left in the main parking lot so if you are interested please let me know soon!

We also have a limited amount of T-shirts available. Please let me know what size you would like and I will have them ready Sunday. $20 for regular T's and $25 for Tye Dye's.

Remember we want to caravan from the Museum by 9am. Some people are coming by the Museum on Saturday and hanging out.

We are getting 25% discount on food and will have live entertainment all day. Goodie bags and dash plaques are included. Hope to see you there even if you are not showing your van!
